My name is Miwa Tanaka. I am a junior high school teacher. I was sad when the third year students left their junior high school this March. When the thirty-seven students in my class left their junior high school, I wanted to give them flowers as presents. So I planted fifty flower seeds in my garden in November last year. I thought at that time, "They will open next March," but they did not open this March. So I made thirty-seven cards with messages and pictures of flowers to give my students. In the messages I said, "I am sad because I can't teach you next month, but I am happy because you are becoming beautiful flowers."

Naoki: Hi, Susan. What are you doing?

Susan: I'm thinking about summer vacation.

Naoki: American students have a long summer vacation.

Susan: Yes. At our school, summer vacation starts on May 22nd, and the new school year begins on August 25th. There are a lot of summer camps. I want to go to one of them. So I want to get some information about camps on the Internet.

Naoki: Why do you want to do that now? There are seven months before the first day of summer vacation.

Susan: You are right, but in America we usually start thinking about summer camps in fall. If we start in winter or spring, we can't go to the camp we want.

Naoki: I don't know about summer camps in America. Can you tell me about them?

Susan: OK, summer camps are fun. You can see many people from other schools. It is nice to meet new friends. Last summer in my camp, I played sports, painted pictures, and even studied Japanese. It is interesting to have lessons we like. Next summer I want to go to a unique camp.

Naoki: Will you show the unique camps you found to me?

Susan: OK. If you like the circus, you can go to this camp. You learn a lot about the circus for two weeks. You can study magic and dance, too.

Naoki: Wow, it sounds great!

Susan: If you like animals, this camp is good. You can learn a lot of things about animals for a week. You can even touch them.

Naoki: I think my brother will like this because he really loves animals.

Susan: If you like music, how about this camp? You walk in the mountains and play music for six days.

Naoki: It sounds interesting. I like this camp the best because I'm interested in walking and music. How about you?

Susan: I don't know. I need more information.

これから、地域のランニングクラブに所属する中学生のNobukoが書いた作文の一部が英語で2回読まれます。かっこ1からかっこ3の質問に対する答えを、英語で書きなさい。

では始めましょう。

I like running, so I joined a running club in my town three years ago. There are ten members in my club and we run every Saturday morning. I like running, but I cannot run fast. Three months ago, the oldest member, Mr. Suzuki said to me, "Let's run in the ten thousand meter road race together next month." I was very surprised to hear that because I was not a good runner. Then, Mr. Suzuki said, "Don't worry. You have practiced hard in our club. You can do it." I said to him, "OK. I will run in the race." From the next day, I started running before school.

Then, the day came and the race started. At first, I was fine, but I began to feel tired near the half way point. I couldn't run fast and soon I was the last runner. I couldn't see the other runners. I wanted to stop running, but then I remembered Mr. Suzuki's words. I was very tired, but I ran and ran. After a long time, I saw the finish line. All the members of my club were waiting for me. I was very happy when I finished the race. One famous runner said, "To do our best is the greatest power we have." Now I know what his words mean. I have learned a lot of things through running.
