Narrator: One day after school, Sam and Ken are talking.

Sam: By the way, are you free on Sunday?

Ken: (ブザー音 1秒, 無音 5秒)

Sam: My brother and I are planning to go fishing in the river this Sunday. We will catch fish and cook them for lunch. We will also enjoy swimming there. I think it will be exciting. Why don't you go with us?

Ken: (ブザー音 1秒, 無音 5秒)

Sam: I see. Maybe next time. I will plan the next fishing trip soon.
(無音 5秒)

Narrator: One month later, Ken is ready to go on the fishing trip. Sam and Ken are talking about that.

Sam: Let's decide where to go on Sunday. We can go fishing in the lake or in the river. I hear that the lake is very beautiful. The water is clean, and there are a lot of fish. We can catch fish easily, and we can eat the fish that we catch for lunch. However, we have to take a train to go to the lake. It is more than two hours to the lake, so we will only have three hours to stay there. That is not enough time to enjoy fishing. I hear the river is also very beautiful in this season, and we can go there by bike. It is only half an hour. We have enough time to enjoy fishing. We can enjoy swimming, too. It is a very popular place to visit. A lot of people go there every weekend and enjoy fishing. Sometimes it is not so easy to catch fish because there are too many people. If we can't get enough fish for lunch, we can buy food and eat there because there are a lot of shops and restaurants near the river, so I think it is better to go to the river.

Ken: (ブザー音 1秒)

< I don't think so.>
